The next ECCO will come out in May 2010.

ECCO

March 2010

“Indoors or out, no one relaxes in March, that month of wind and taxes, the wind will presently disappear, the taxes last us all the year.”

Ogden Nash

Best of British

The English Comedy Club has been chosen by the Daily Telegraph newspaper as the Best in Country Winner for Belgium in The Telegraph's Best of British Awards!

We now have a chance of becoming the Best in the World. You can help to make that happen by visiting The Telegraph's Best of British site, which can be accessed via www.telegraph.co.uk/expat, voting and commenting on our club before 15 March.

The world winners will be announced at the Best of British Awards ceremony on 22 April in London.

Not a seat in the house

We are pleased to announce that Three Tall Women completely sold out weeks before the production begins.

This is often the case for shows that are on at the Warehouse Studio theatre so this is a good opportunity for us to remind you to buy tickets well in advance, as more and more productions are selling out well in advance of the play starting.

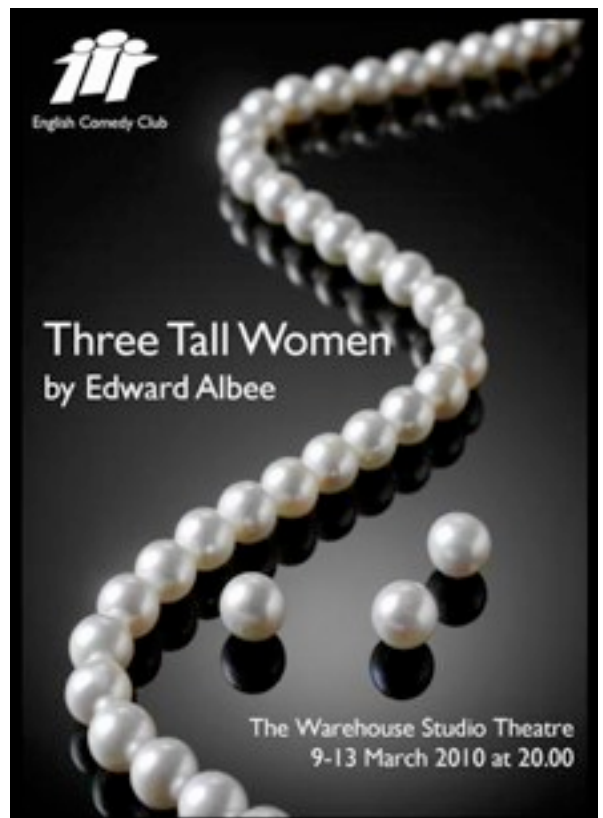

You can always find out which productions are already selling tickets by visiting www.theatreinbrussels.com.

Under construction

The weekend of 13 and 14 March, saw a creative flurry from the participants of the set-building workshop.

The weekend was a mixture of theory and practice. First Olan Wrynn (far left) explained about the different elements needed in a good set and then showed them how to construct scale models to help to plan a successful project.
